Brrrrrr...

Cold weather is coming and we'll all start bundling up to stay warm. Remember that young or older pets don't always handle cold weather very well. They might need a little more food and access to a warm dry area--especially at night--and don't forget to provide them with access to fresh water. A good brisk walk can help keep them active too. Pets provide a special kind of affection and dimension to our lives...please reward them with extra care during the upcoming winter months.

Home Tour Update

Our 2010 Gatewood Home and Garden tour was a great success...thanks to the gracious homeowners, the dedicated home tour committee and all the hard working volunteers who helped staff the homes and sell tickets. Although our attendance was down a little from last year, we still hit our financial target and the money will be put to good use in Gatewood improvements. Thank you to everyone who participated!
